

North Carolina Student Transition Resource Initiative for Veteran's Education

Student Veteran Transition: Resources*

Presented by Appalachian State University, with the support of Cape Fear Community College

The following is a list of commonly used and helpful resources for individuals who are transitioning from military service to higher education. As mentioned in our session, if you are unsure of where to look or what to do, feel free to reach out to your local Veteran Service Officer or your institution's military/veteran point of contact.

NC DMVA Resource Guide

Federal Resources

US Department of Veterans Affairs

VA Education Benefits

Federal Financial Aid

VA College Toolkit

GI Bill Comparison Tool

State (North Carolina) Resources

NC Department of Military and Veterans Affairs (NC DMVA)

NC DMVA Housing Assistance

NC Veteran Services Officers

NCSERVES

NCCARE360

NC4ME

NCWORKS

Local/Regional Resources

There are hundreds of incredible resources (programs, services, organizations, etc.) across North Carolina. We recommend that you connect with your local Veteran Services Officer or veteran/military point of contact at your college/university to identify resources specific to your area.

Non-profit Organizations

Student Veterans of America

Wounded Warrior Project

Veterans Bridge Home

Whole Vet

Hiring our Heroes

American Gold Star Mothers

The Recon Network

* This list is not exhaustive, but provides popular resources identified by our presenters and organizers.

